Program for 1/29/2008: Silvia Sinclair - ETC Electric Theater Controls

Program from 1/22/07: Sonya Newhouse Madison Environment Grp. Green building doesn't have to mean more expensive. Sonya talked about how they took the savings they made from using recycled stuff from the ReStore and put it into better refrigerator, etc. Dane Co.'s landfill is 46% filled with construction waster. The single most individual behavior to help the environment is to drive less. 40% of car trips are under 2 miles.

Birthdays

Skip Jackson 1/30                      Betsy Jenkins 2/22
Jim Bren 2/6

Falk Project Bob Lasseter talked about the Partnership Project with Falk Elementary. Ted and Melissa shared their experiences. Ted works with kids on math and Melissa reads to K/1st graders at lunchtime. It's fun and fun to see the kids challenged. Bob Lasseter also volunteers and his wife is a K teacher. If he wants to be a part of her life he needs to spend time at Falk. The principal from Falk, Lynn Winn, also spoke and thanked the club and Ted, Melissa and Bob for their volunteer time, and also extended an invitation to anyone else interested in spending time at Falk.

Mardi Gras Party! Remember the Mardi Gras party at the Tibbitts' Feb 2. at 6 PM. To make it more fun, each person should bring a gaudily wrapped white elephant gift. Masks and Mardi Gras garb are optional. Mary and Ted encourage you to come for the house is not full yet. The more the merrier. Please call 233-7746 if you can come. 6217 S. Highlands Ave., Madison.

Happy/Sad

- Bruce for Medtronic/pacemaker which saved his life as he had a heart attack in the night but the pacemaker kept him going.
- Skip for wife's cataract surgery.
- Johna, Thursday is her and her grandsons' birthdays.
- Steve F for Williamsburg furniture show and for Bruce's close call.
- Mark, sad for Packers; but happy they aren't going to the superbowl as they would have lost to Patriots.
- Ted for Rotary Curling Bonspiel. Canada won, and there were 22 teams!

Happy BDAY TO JOHNA!      MARK WON THE RAFFLE!
