Program for October 24, 2006: Lezlie Cox will speak about the upcoming Russian visit.

Notes from last meeting, October 17, 2006: Peter Munoz of Centro Hispano spoke and showed a video. Centro Hispano of Dane County exists to empower Latinos through quality social, educational and cultural programs. To accomplish its mission, it shall:

- Advocate for increased and equitable opportunities for Hispanics and Latinos on issues directly affecting the Hispanic and Latino community.
- Provide direct client services in the areas of information and referral, employment and training, translation, and housing assistance, among other services.
- Focus on educational programming for youth to assure that they complete high school and are prepared to enter post-secondary education/training and the community.
- Promote cultural awareness through community events and multicultural education and training.
- Develop active Hispanic/Latino community involvement in the mission of Centro Hispano.
