There was a short discussion on what organization to contribute $500.00 of "pin" money to. Suggestions were: Habitat for Humanity, Boys & Girls Club, Salvation Army, Second Harvest, DAIS, Wags, Sharing Resources World Wide and Wexford Community Center. Steve Harms suggested the Wexford Community Center as (ask Steve who is matching) will match dollars contributed; which means more dollars for the cause. This is a local charity and will benefit many people. It was an unanimous vote to distribute $500.00 to the Wexford Community Center. Steve will get the information and let Laurie Anderson know where to send the check.

Jon Lowery recommended that our club start doing press releases; this would get our name out into the community. Johna Hartnel would like to see our club announcement in the Madison paper on Wednesdays in the insert section with other announcements. Betsy Jenkins volunteered to chair this project.

Jon Lowery shared Mary Hinner's and his experience with the RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Awards) interviews held on February 16, 2007; sophomores from Memorial High School. The two selected students are Halil Ahmed and Hanna Postel and the two alternates are Grace Colas and Lauren Rock. In all there were seven students interviewed.

Steve Harms mentioned PETS training this spring. (Melissa you will have to get the dates from him).

Present: 15 members (15 with pins) Absent:

President's useless fact: Jesse explained that the state of Main is the only state with one syllable. Followed by a joke by Karen Wulff (s)

Habitat for Humanity Home: Don Novonty reported that this coming weekend is a painting day (helpers needed-as always), March 17th will be "put on the trim day", and April 9th will be the Blessing of the home and the dedication. The new landlord is Trisha and she has three sons. Don passed around a picture of the home.

Happy/sad dollars: Karen Wulff and John Thoman (John gave the $1.00) told of John and his wife showing up a week early for the pot-luck dinner for people going to South America. It was delicious-they said, Johna for her two grandbabies birthdays this weekend, Steve H for his son who has a manager's position at the golf course at Green Lake, John Lowrey (sad) for the snow, Bob L because his wife was still speaking to him (he left before the snow storm and came back when it was done-he did not have to shovel), Mary Hinner for the beautiful snow and Jesse for the wonderful day.
