President's useless fact: Actually, this one was from Mark Helfrich, and you can read about it at <http://www.snopes.com/critters/malice/elephant.asp>

Habitat: Don said there were 13 people painting, 3 from Horizons and 7 or 8 from Bob Lorenz's church. Jesse brought a large roller and they finished painting before lunch. They're happy to be done with the painting and would like to get the doors and trim done by 4/7. We have four volunteers so far.

Karen W: Melissa reported that Karen will have surgery on Monday; email is fine; please keep Karen in your thoughts and prayers.

Bolivia! Lezlie reported that they had a meeting at Lasseter's Monday evening. The deposit for the trip is due at the end of March but it's possible to sign up after that. We will leave the first weekend of July, work Monday thru Saturday, then some folks will stay on and see Machu Pichu. Room and board for the first week is roughly $700, and the flight will be anywhere between $950-1200. They had plenty of food at the meeting last night and even brought leftover brownies and cheesecake for dessert.

Happy/sad dollars:

- Laurie was in Arizona visiting her folks, went to Negalis, Mexico, and three men in a shop asked where she was from; when she said, 'Wisconsin', they said, 'OH! Green Bay Packers, Brett Favre, Cheeseheads!'
- Lezlie spent 2 weeks in St. Pete's/Russia.
- Melissa leaving for Gulf Shores Friday.
- Jesse for Badgers.
- Skip leaving for Paris Friday.
- John Pinger and wife talked to their son in Beijing over computer with video cameras.
- Ted skied at Cascade Thurs., had a nice time, and it may be the last opportunity for the season.

Joe V. won the raffle!
