Program for 4/1/2008: Steve Busalacchi, author of White Coat Wisdom.

Program from 3/25/08 Club Assembly. Pam Magee from Gilda's Club spoke. Joanne Bull, psychotherapist of wellness group for cancer patients to support each other/share feelings. Gilda had homes on both coasts but wellness group only on west coast; she shared her wish to have place on east coast with husband, Gene Wilder, and after her death, Gene and Joanne made that wish come true by opening the first Gilda's Club (NYC). The Middleton club will be the 23rd in the country. The club will offer emotional support, networking, educational lectures and workshops for patients and the public, and social opportunities through potlucks, book clubs, karaoke, etc. There will be a $750,000 annual operating budget and the building will be 16,000 sq. ft. "Noogieland" will focus on kids. June 2008 completion/open for "members". Only source of funding is community support. For more information go to: <http://www.gildasclubmadison.org/>

Happy/Sad

- John T. for Bo Ryan...one more week! And, half apology for spending too much time talking about his grandkids...no apologies needed, John.
- Steve F in San Antonio last week at battlefield.
- Carrie for kitchen remodel and learned how to use a dishwasher!

We sang to Carrie and visitor Bill won the raffle!
