Program for March 13, 2007: Craig Wilson, Kites and Aerial Photography.

Notes from last meeting, 3/6/07: Red Cross - Ted Laufenberg. Some Hurricane Katrina facts: hit in August '05; covered 90,000 square miles, required 240,000 volunteers. Stoughton tornado August '05: 63 families, or, 176 individuals helped. Cost per volunteer hour after all costs figured: 10 cents. 35,000 meals and snacks served (1/2 from Culvers!) $51,936 was cost to Badger Chapter of Red Cross. Red Cross gets no federal funding; contributions come from the American public. Ted thanked Rotary for our support.

Visiting Rotarians/Guests: Bruce Mohs.

Absent Members: Buttonwood, Cox, Steve H, Mark H, Mary H, Bev K.

Birthdays: Lynn Bodi 3/22 Bob Lorenz 3/31

President's useless fact: Jesse explained that the state of Maine is the only state with one syllable. Followed by a joke by Karen Wulff (s)
Habitat for Humanity Home: Don Novonty reported that this coming weekend is a painting day (helpers needed-as always), March 17th will be "put on the trim day", and April 9th will be the Blessing of the home and the dedication. The new landlord is Trisha and she has three sons. Don passed around a picture of the home.

Happy/sad dollars: One can of spam is opened every 4 seconds! Attendance was at 70% for the month of January...NOT BAD!!

Habitat: Don reported that the trip was cancelled due to weather; 4-6 people should go out 3/10 (Sat.) to paint upstairs room which is primed. Email will come out.

Karen: Ron announced that Karen W. was recently diagnosed with uteran cancer. Any correspondence should go through Ron at this time.

Happy/Sad:

- Ted for 2 weeks on cruise thru the Panama Canal; ate too much but great experience.
- Ron $10 because he's officially off the market and engaged to a Madison firefighter; she likes to travel. Johna asked when we can meet her and Skip said, 'pull the fire alarm'!
- John T for women of Madison, 'cuz Ron's off the market!
- Mike G nice to be back; nice to see nothing's changed.
- Bruce for article in magazine about the Mohs automobile; SMU lost Bball game by 3 points.
- Skip, today is 25th wedding anniversary; and for Karen, to get better; he knows she will.

Bob Lasseter won the raffle!
