Program for April 24, 2007: 4/24/2007 Angela Kinderma: Fitchburg & Verona News

Notes from last meeting, 4/10/07: Russian visitors! Center for Citizen Initiative - Intensive Training Seminars which rely on local clubs. 100 Russian's recently came to Washington D.C. Important endeavor to know each other and exchange ideas.

Group represent different regions; now this is a full circle field opening up as economy has changed. Introductions were made by each individual. The group ranged from owners to free-lancers in areas such as outdoor advertising, branding to web design.

Brochures were passed around. There was a business represented that grew from a once person shop. It seems the graphic design studios in Russia are very similar to USA with last minute clients and tight deadlines.

A bigger picture issue for Russia is qualified workers in the area of business and finance, and transition of military manufacturing areas to a more peaceful economy with foreign investments from Germany and USA.
