Program for May 1, 2007: Board Meeting, Club Assembly.

Notes from last meeting, 4/24/07: Angela Kinderman, Executive Director of the Fitchburg Chamber of Commerce, akinderman@fitchburgchamber.com: Fitchburg is 36 sq. miles with 23,000 residents. Agora Center is probably center of Fitchburg and will be developed as such. It's on E. Cheryl Pkwy. off Fish Hatchery Rd behind La Paella; connected to pavilion where they have farmers' market. Upcoming events are 5/17 Grand Opening of the Agora Center from 4-7pm and 6/4-Chamber Golf Outing at University Ridge. For information on planning/zoning of the Fitchburg area, go to www.city.fitchburg.wi.us

Proposed Member Jeanne Armstrong is applying for membership in the Madison Horizons chapter of Rotary.

Visiting Rotarians/Guests: Bruce Mohs, Angela Kinderman, Jeanne Armstrong.

Absent Members: Cox Realty, Skip J, Betsy J, Bob Lasseter, Jesse S, Winter Law.

Miscellaneous: Sign found during highway cleanup is a picture of a neubian goat was originally bred in China; the only place in the states that raises them is in Columbus, Indiana.

Highway Cleanup was a success with 12 people, 30 bags of trash, and $21 found: $1 from John P and $20 from Ron's Wendy.

Attendance was at 74% for March per Jesse! This is great!

Jack Taft turning 80! We should do something as a club to celebrate.

Club Assembly 5/1, with board meeting following the regular meeting. Anyone interested in future leadership roles in the club should let Jesse know.
