Program for June 26, 2007: NO MEETING - CLUB PICNIC!

Notes from last meeting, June 19, 2007: Our speaker was originally from Holland but has worked and traveled all over the world working in the dairy industry. He owns a consulting firm that helps, encourages and facilitates dairy farmers, especially from Holland, to move to Wisconsin and set up a dairy operation. 99% of all dairy farms in Wisconsin are family owned.

Jesses's useless factoid: Guernsey cows produce yellow milk

Visiting Rotarians/Guests: Joe Silverberg-Dwntn; Marie Feldt-WT Middleton; Terry Henderson-Dwntwn.

Absent Members: Melissa C, Steve H, Johna H, Skip J, Bob Lasseter, Ted T, Winter Law.

Someone suggested a Mallard game group outing. However someone else said that they thought there was a Rotary night coming up for all the clubs in Madison. I took a quick look at the Mallard website and didn't see anything. Nothing was decided on the outing.

There is no meeting this next week as it is golf and picnic day (HAS ANYONE TOLD THE RADISSON?) (There needs to be someone there at the desk to give visiting Rotarians their credit.)

Cash bar opens at 5:30. Dinner to follow. There are 3 foursomes signed up to play.

Regina is leaving to take a job in San Diego

Happy and Sad $$:

- Mark H. Had a sad dollar as his father died this week. He had had back surgery and developed an infection. He was given a funeral with full military honors. New member Carie gave a dollar because she is happy to belong to Horizons.

- Shay gave a yeah Brewers dollar

- Betsy was thrilled that it finally rained on her garden. Jesses's son graduated at the Kohl Center.

Mary Hinner won the drawing
