Program for July 17, 2007: William Furbish Bottled Water (DNR representative)

Notes from last meeting, July 10, 2007: Jon announced that we would be having a club assembly today and therefore would put off installing the committee chairs until next week.

Packer Raffle. Nancy Winter talked about the raffle. The tickets should be ready within the next 2 weeks., They will be $10 each with pricing break points for certain quantities. There are 4 teams and the captains as: Jeanne, Ron, Shay, Nancy

The first prize are tickets to the Packer-Viking game, a limo ride to the game and dinner. We are still working on putting together the second prize. If anyone has access to Badger tickets, please let Nancy know. We also have several sponsors at the $200 and $500 levels..

Service Club Olympics. 7/24- Service Club Olympics with bowling taking place the night before.

Habitat. A team went out too the new Habitat house. We seem to have fallen into a workable pattern of going out there every other weekend. Next time will be 7/21.

Misc. Our old friend Hendriks called Ted to wish everyone in the club a happy Fourth of July.

Headlines from History (in lieu of useless facts)

July 10th 1940: the Battle of Britain began

July 10th 1943 The U.S. invaded Sicily

July 10th 1777: Richard Prescott was taken prisoner will asleep and not allowed to change out of his dressing gown before being hauled off

7/28: Highway clean-up Meet at 7:30 am at the Kohl's at the Southtowne mall

Happy and Sad dollars:

Shay: he and his 2 twin nephews went to the zoo.

Mary Hinner: thought that Betsy did a great job as greeter today

Betsy: her mom visited to help her finish her home re-modeling job.

Ted: He and Mary canoed the Kickapoo river for 3 miles.

Steve Harms: his car drove thru the results of a leaking manure spreader on the highway and had to go thru the car wash twice to get it clean.

Bruce: told us there were a lot of women in our club

Lynn: baseball season is over and her son's team lost their last game.

IOU: Steve Harms won the raffle but there was no prize to give him

Jon reviewed and revised the chairs and members for the committees this year.
