Program for 8/19/2008: Majid Sarmadi: "Iran: Myth and Reality, What do We really Know About the Country That We Are About to Attack".

Program from 8/12/2008: Our RYLA scholarship recipients spoke. Seb: thank you so much; it was an amazing trip. Learned so much... just fantastic...was a little cautious...learn stuff about yourself...was with the green team...leader was Chris and she was very cool...lots of trust activities...physical then mental...there was a lot of arguing... need to be able to listen...wrote a group mission statement...leader was good at getting the kids together in different situations. Two main things Seb learned: 1. planning 2. listening and understanding. Alexandra: thank you...one of the best times of my life...yellow team with Bill and Sara...started out feeling disconnected...did a trust walk... she hit her head on a canoe...she doesn't like asking for help and there was no way out unless you asked for help...group really bonded...ropes course was so cool!...35' pole...she was so scared but all her friends encouraged her that she could do it...it was a lot of fun. Her two main things she learned: 1. listen 2. don't dismiss ideas.
