Program for September 9, 2008: Carolyn White, The Verona Area Performing Arts: Celebrating their 10th anniversary.

Program from 9/2/2008: Norman Risjord: The Wizard of Oz as Political Parable. Don and Norman met through faculty bowling! Norm is on the Jazz Society board. They invited 18 Dane Co. high school jazz bands to compete for spot during a benefit concert. 4 showed up so they all made the cut. Sun Prairie, Verona, Monona Grove and Stoughton. Sun Prairie took third at Lincoln Center's 13th annual Essentially Ellington competition in New York City! Norm's history students have always asked, 'what can you DO with history?' and Norm always says, 'nothing, but the study of history helps you develop a stockpile of trivia you can try on family.' The word "Oz" was coined when the author of "The Wizard of Oz" looked up from his desk and saw an encyclopedia volume "O-Z".

100% pins today!

Raffle Tickets Nancy will have a team tally next time. We're hoping for the Illinois game for Badger tickets. Try contacting service providers (i.e. banks, insurance agents) to post flier.

Hwy Cleanup Don made an $80 contribution to the club from the money found during highway cleanup. Even after contacting AAA to get ahold of the fellow who the money belongs to, we heard nothing, so hip hip hooray for Don!

Absent Members Law4Kids.

Visiting Rotarians/Guests Nan Zimdars, Joe Valenta, Norm Risjord.

Happy/Sad

- Randy for the Brewers game; good conversation at table about the obscure rules of baseball.
- John T for the Brewers double play.

Steve Harms won the raffle!
